TABLE OF CONTENTS:

How to interpret this summary; Historical significance of this connected draft; A note on the spelling of family names; Early county roads in the area; Listing of individual survey tracts; General Index.

This book fully summarizes the process by which early colonial settlers secured warranted lands from the Proprietors of Pennsylvania. Original warrant-surveys #1 to #422, numbered sequentially are detailed.

Extent of geographic research: all of Codorus Township, York County, PA; boundary survey tracts with North Codorus, Springfield, Shrewsbury, Heidelberg and Manheim Townships. Codorus Township is bounded on the south by the Mason-Dixon Line with Maryland.

Index lists some 568 colonial and early settler - family names; 239 property tract names; full source listings from the Pennsylvania Historic and Museum Commission, Harrisburg; and the Historical Society of York, PA are included.

Map 1-4: Codorus Township (consolidate) - 36 by 48 inch, four color map of the township, cross indexed by survey number to this volume.
