

About The Justice Bell & York County's Role In Women's Suffrage

Enjoy this virtual version of our exhibit What Does Justice Mean to You?: The Story of the Justice Bell & York County's Role in the Women's Suffrage Movement.

In this virtual exhibit we'll examine York's role in the campaign for a state level women's suffrage, the story and travels of the Justice Bell, and feature artifacts and archival materials from the local campaign and campaign leader, Anna Dill Gamble. The physical version of this special exhibit will reopen on April 1, 2021 at the Historical Society Museum and run through fall 2021.
